WELCOME TO NRVNA

Here at NRVNA we believe in growing premium flower as close to the way mother nature intended. Located in Sacramento, California our ecologically friendly cultivation facility is second to none. With award winning genetics that consistently produce top tier cannabis that not only looks exotic but has a full bodied taste delivering a euphoric balanced high. Our passionate team of master cultivators with over 25 years of experience use a tightly monitored closed loop system with soil grown and hand watered techniques staying in constant contact with the plant to assure a quality product. Come and experience NRVNA with us through our transcendent cannabis lineup.
